

Notice Regarding the Payment of the One-off Cash Benefits

Please be notified that a cash handout of 30,000 yen is set to be provided to households exempt from fiscal year 2024 resident tax under the Japanese government's economic policy.

An additional 20,000 yen per child will be added to the cash benefit for eligible households with children aged under 18 years.

As outlined below, the cash benefit amount will be deposited directly into the pre-registered bank account.

In your case, there is no need to complete any additional procedures.

With that said, if any of the conditions No.1 to No.3 listed below apply to your household, be sure to call the Hikone Call Center for Special Temporary Cash Handout Programs by 4:45 PM on Friday, March 4, 2025.

[Important Notes]

If any of the conditions No.1 to No.3 listed below apply to your household, you are required to complete the necessary procedures by March 4, 2025.

① If the cash benefit payment cannot be provided if your household:

*Beware that if you obtain the benefit payment by providing fraudulent and/or misleading information, you may face legal charges for benefit fraud.

- Has a member who is subject to fiscal 2024 Kintowari (head tax) resident tax.
- Has a member who already received the cash benefit payment from another municipality under the same One-off Cash Benefits Program.
- Has a member who is exempt from taxes under the tax treaty.
- Is financially reliant on someone, such as parents, who is subject to resident tax.

*To cite an example, a university student living alone and financially depending on his/her parents, tax-exempt parents financially supported by their child subject to resident tax, and those who joined the workforce in 2024, live alone, and are no longer covered by their parents' social security plans, are not eligible for this cash benefits program. If you are not sure, please consult with your family members or reach out to the call center at the number below.

② If your household wants to renounce the eligibility to receive the cash benefit payment.

③ If you want to use a different bank account to receive the cash benefit payment.

(*If your surname has changed due to marriage, you need to update)
