Application Form for the Cash Handout Program for Inflation

With commodity prices still rising, another cash handout program is set to start, and the following amount of money will be provided to households hit hardest by inflation (such as tax-exempt households).

Having received this application form and other related documents means that you are considered to be eligible to receive the handout payment. Therefore, please read through the conditions, etc. specified in detail below and on the back, and submit the application form and all the necessary requirements by 2024, March 8, Friday. Your submission has to be postmarked no later than the said due date.

Details

Handout Amount: 70,000 JPY

Bank Account Information:

No bank account has been registered with the city yet.
For this, be sure to provide the required information regarding your householder's bank account and submit the following two requirements alongside the application form.
① A photocopy of a bankbook/card
② A photocopy of a householder's photo identification

■ This Application Form Must Be Completed By The Head Of The Household.

Check the box only after reading and understanding the conditions in the table and important points.

<input type="checkbox"/>	① I acknowledge that all of my household members are exempt from fiscal 2023 resident tax (per capita tax included) and have not earned any taxable income during the tax year. ② I acknowledge that all of my household members are not a dependent of any other household that is subject to fiscal 2023 resident tax (per capita tax included). ③ I acknowledge that none of my household members is a beneficiary of tax exemption under the Japan Tax Treaty.

*If the application form with the above box is unchecked, no handout payment will be given.

*If your household already received the handout payment under the same cash handout program from another municipality, your household is not eligible for the one provided by Hikone City.

*If the city finds that your household has made false claims or provided misleading information to get the handout payment, the money must be returned to the city. Please check with your household members whether they are someone's dependent or not.

*As part of the screening process, the city may access your household's information in its Basic Resident Registration System.

*If you fail to submit the application form and requirements by the due date, your household's application will be considered withdrawn.

*If your handout payment could not be provided due to errors or lack of requirements in your application, your household will be considered to be "withdrawn" after the certain amount of time passes despite requests made by the city to correct an error(s) and/or submit a requirement(s).

*Once the handout payment is paid, this application form will be kept by the city as proof of payment.

(Note) If you want to receive the handout payment in cash, please get in touch with the Hikone City Cash Handout Call Center.

By providing your personal information below as the head of the household, you acknowledge that you have read, understood and agree to all the conditions for this cash handout program.
