

彦根 明代 様

彦根市長 和田 裕 行

Notice of 50,000 Yen Handout Per Child for Low-Income Families

A cash handout of 50,000 yen per child is set to be provided to households that are either tax-exempt or subject to fiscal 2023 Kintowari (per capita, 5800 yen) resident tax.

Having received this notice means that the amount of money specified below is scheduled to be paid into the following bank account. Therefore, there is no need for you to apply to receive the money.

Details

Handout Amount:

Bank Account:

Information of Qualifying Children

	Katakana	Date of Birth		Katakana	Date of Birth
	Name			Name
1			4
2			5
3			6

【To Register A Different Bank Account or Renounce Your Cash Handout Eligibility】 or

【To Notify The City That Your Household Members Are A Dependent Of Someone Subject To Fiscal 2023 Resident Tax, And Therefore Do Not Qualify】

Please submit the following requirements to the city by April 10 (Wed), 2024. *It must be postmarked by the due date.

- Bank Account Registration/Eligibility Renunciation Form
- Photocopy Of A Householder's Photo ID
- Photocopy Of A Bankbook

【Important Points】 If your household meets any of the following conditions, the cash handout cannot be provided.

A. All your household members are a dependent of someone who is subject to fiscal 2023 resident tax

*The renunciation form must be submitted.

B. Your household includes a member (s) who has/have not done taxes for fiscal 2023 resident tax despite having earned taxable income.

C. Your household includes a member (s) who has/have already received the money under the same program from a different municipality.

D. Your household includes a member (s) who is/are a beneficiary of tax exemption under the tax treaty.

*If the condition A is applicable to you, be sure to submit your renunciation form.

When it comes to the conditions B, C and D, please call the call center and inform the city about it.

*If you received the handout money regardless of on purpose or by accident, the money must be returned to the city swiftly.

【What Else Is Included In The Envelope Along With This Notice Letter?】

- Flyer regarding this cash handout program.
- Bank Account Registration/Eligibility Renunciation Form

Contact Info

Hikone Cash Handout Program Call Center

0120-139-105 (weekdays between 9:00 and 5:00)